

HSG Information

On the first day of your menstrual cycle call the office and speak with your nurse. She will call and schedule you for your HSG.

This procedure can only be done between day seven and day ten (7-10) of your cycle.

If you are given antibiotics, be sure to take them as directed before the procedure date.

It is very important to call the first day to insure that an appointment will be available for you.